SUFFRAGISTS WILL DECIDE TODAY IF

OCCOQUAN, Va., Aug. 21 .- The six militant suffragists confined at the be reviewed. Chief Counsel Lucy Burns, one of the Beutenants of Miss Alice Paul in the National Woman's Party, today, to decide finally whether an appeal from the thirty-day sentence Judge Pugh in Police Court will be all persons from seeing the captives, unless they are members of the pris-unless they are members of the pris-chers' families, attorneys or come with authority from the District Commissioners.

Miss Burns will be admitted on the statement of the six suffragists that she is their counsel, but Miss Burns is merely regarded as the connecting link between attorneys who have been retained by the Woman's Party and ow is the last day for the filing of an appeal, and the whole matter is expected to be threshed out at suffrage headquarters late today, after Miss Burns reports on the attitude of the prisoners.

Warden Denies Charge. Warden Whitaker denied today the allegation made by Miss Edna Dixon, se of the prisoners, that a common drinking cup is used by all prisoners. Miss Dixon, through her mother, had complained that negro and white women at the penal farm weter re-quired to drink from the same cup. The warden, in his denial today, ieclared he issues to each prisoner, white or colored, two individual drinking cups each day, and that the negro women have one bucket, the white women another.

Are Sewing Redelothes The suffragists were put to work in the prison sewing room this morning, sewing bedciothes and clothing for the inmates of the farm. They will continue at this work, it was said, all through the day, except for eating periods and the time to be allowed them for a conference with Miss

Glison Gardner, journalist and suffrage sympathizer, returned from eye. He went to the prison yesterday with Congressman Baer of North Dakota. The Congressman, upon presentation of his card, was admitted to see the suffragists, but Gardner

Appeal Dangerous. appeal, it seems, is a dangerous thing in this case. Attorneys have told the suffrage leaders that if they appeal, it is left entirely to the discretion of the appellate court as to whether the pickets may give bond whether the pickets may give bond or be kept in jail pending the hearing of their case.

The appeal, it is understood, can hardly be heard in less than six months, and the suffragists face the possibility of having their sentence of one month stretched to six months.

Miss Buelah Amidon, press representative of the party, today refuted the denial by Warden Whittaker of charges that a common drinking cup charges that a common drinking cup was used at the Occoquan workhouse. The suffragists say The suffragists say the common drinking cup charge is based upon statements of Congressman Baer of North Dakota, who visited Occoquan yesterday, as well as statements made by the mother of Miss Edna Dixon, of Washington, one of the imprisoned suffragettes.
